POUNTA CAMP SITE

Koishiwara, Toho-mura, Asakura-gun, Fukuoka

ポーン太の森キャンプ場

- This versatile shooting location in the lush green mountains of Koishiwara offers river locations, countless mountain passages, tiered camp sites with ancient stone wall ledges and fortifications, and permitted outdoor fire zones. Ponta also has a lodge facility that can accommodate large-scale productions with an industrial kitchen on site to facilitate hot-meal requirements. Plenty of room for a comms center, wardrobe, Hair/Make-up, executive office, background holding, cafeteria and more!
- Ponta features 10 flat wilderness camp sites, and 9 well-appointed bungalows throughout the location that connect different mountain site options. Making it easy for cast & crew to shoot in all 4 amazing seasons.
- The lush green moss-covered forest areas are unique to this part of Japan and reflect the aesthetic that directors look for when shooting here.
- Ponta is 30 minutes away from the multitude of Hikosan locations and just 10 minutes from the mystical Iwaya Jinja location, Matsuo Castle ruins and the giant Gyoja-Sugi forest. -The largest cedar trees in Japan also know as the Tengu Forest! -Where the legend of Tengu, mountain gods and demons was born.

POUNTA CAMP SITE

- Its located just 9 minutes away from restaurant options and a farmers market. Background and principle actors can be cast locally and props, armor, lighting and other production gear is available.
- The parking area is easy to access and can accommodate 20 cars. 4-ton trucks and trailers can also park within walking distance and generator trucks can be located close to each main set location. There is 100v power throughout the campsite area.
- The quiet locations are not on any major flight path and just far enough from the main road, so sound holds are minimal.
