NAKASHIMA STORE FRONT HOUSE

Soeda-machi, Tagawa-gun, Fukuoka

中島家住宅

- An authentic two-story Japanese Trading House and two storehouses (Kura) of a successful 1800's business along the main road of a small castle town. The expansive Japanese garden behind the house is being restored and will be completed in 2025 and is part of the national treasure designation for this location.
- Perfect for period scenes of all kinds with multiple rooms and Kura spaces that offer different looks to accommodate a multi-location shoot all in one place!
- The massive wood beams that make up the second-floor roof structure of the main house, as well as the structure of the Kura shoot well as authentic Japanese architecture. Natural light from the surrounding doors that open to the outside can be used, as well as completely closed off to easily accommodate controlled lighting set-ups.

NAKASHIMA STORE FRONT HOUSE

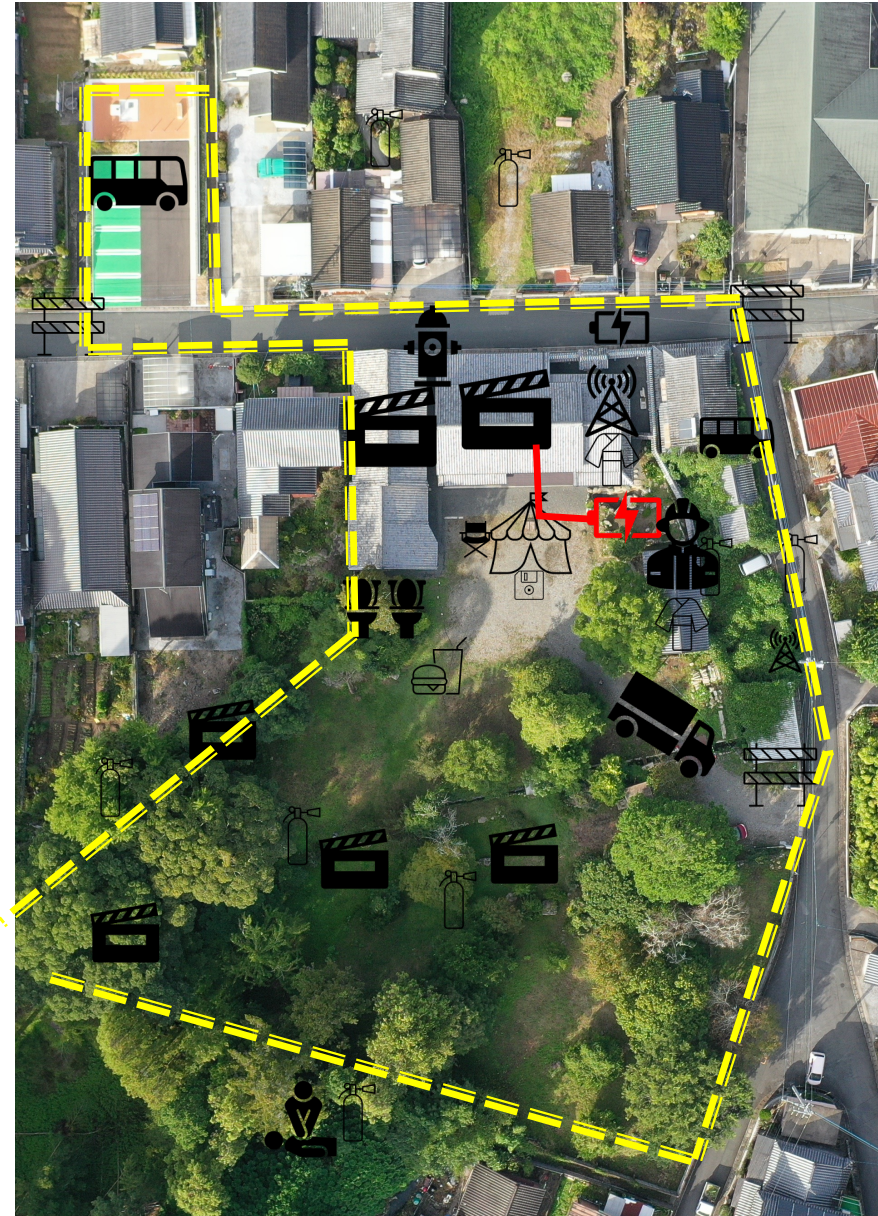

- Local power is available up to 100amps and on-site parking for generator trucks can also be accommodated.
- Parking for up to 20 vehicles with 4-ton truck access and space for a star-trailer if needed.
- A detached bathroom for Women/Men and accessibility is on site and located just out of sound range. The Japanese structure blends nicely into the surrounding buildings.
- The main road in front of the house can also be locked-down and local traffic diverted to help with sound.
- This location is a designated historical landmark, and is just 3 minutes away from a variety of great locations including Ganjaku Castle, Ganjaku Mountain, a large temple and Samurai House & Tea House (also featured in our location listings).
